

9. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the president and directors of said Office of Pay and Receipt, shall have the power to elect a cashier and such other officers and servants, as they may deem necessary for the conducting the business of the bank, and to allow them such compensation for their services as may be reasonable, out of the funds of the bank.

Dec. Ses. 1821.

Election of Cashier, &c.

10. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the president of said Office of Pay and Receipt, shall attend to the qualifications of the officers who shall be appointed, and also to require of them bonds, with two securities to be approved by the board of directors, conditioned for the faithful performance of their respective duties, with penalties adequate to the security of the bank, which said bonds shall be renewed annually.

Qualifications—bonds.

11. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the general dividend shall be declared at Westminster, out of the joint profits of the Bank of Westminster and the Office of Pay and Receipt, and the stock-holders residing in Frederick or its vicinity, shall be entitled to receive their dividends at the Office of Pay and Receipt, under such rules and limitations as shall be found necessary and convenient by the directors of the Bank of Westminster.

Dividends—where payable.

12. AND BE IT ENACTED, That the president and directors of the Office of Pay and Receipt, shall form by-laws, rules and regulations for the government of the Office of Pay and Receipt; Provided, That such by-laws, rules and regulations, are not inconsistent with this charter or the one to which this is a supplement.

By-laws, &c.

Proviso.

13. AND BE IT ENACTED, That all notes offered for discount at the Office of Pay and Receipt of the Bank of Westminster, shall, on the face thereof, be made negotiable at the Bank of Westminster; and when the drawer shall not reside in Frederick-town, such note shall be made payable at some house in Frederick-town; and in all cases of notes discounted at said Office of Pay and Receipt, notice given or left by the proper servant of the bank, at the house where the said discounted note shall be made payable, that such note hath become due, shall be, to all intents and purposes, held and considered to be as completely binding on the drawers and endorsers, as if notice had been personally served on each of them.

Discount notes—notice.

CHAPTER 43.

An act relative to the making of a public landing place and road in Somerset county. Passed Jan. 12, 1822.

SEC. 1. BE IT ENACTED By the General Assembly of Maryland, That Littleton Aires, George Riffin and Robert Leatherbury, be, and they or a majority of them, are hereby appointed commissioners to meet at the place commonly called Levin Jones' landing, on Monie Creek, in Somerset county, during the present year, and examine and determine whether the public convenience does require that a public landing should be established at or near said landing, and a public road located and opened to said landing; and if in the opinion of the said commissioners or a majority of them, the public convenience does require that a public landing should be established, and a road located and opened to said landing, they or a majority of them shall lay out a quantity of land for a public landing place on Monie Creek, at or near the aforementioned place, not exceeding two acres, and shall locate and open a road leading Commissioners—their duties.